

District Export Council Examines National Priorities

Photo by Megan Wood

National policy priorities affecting U.S. and California exports were the focus of the May 21 gathering of the District Export Council (DEC) of Northern California at the California Chamber of Commerce, including special guest Michael Masserman (seated, second from left) of the U.S. Department of Commerce. Following the DEC luncheon, Masserman spoke at the CalChamber International Forum (see story on facing page).